*Prices are based upon gender, coat color, tail length, registration type (Full or Limited) and/or eye color if a Tri. If Buyer is interested in different coat colors or genders, the Buyers choice may change the final price of the puppy. In general, the breeder will make the final puppy placement decision based on the best fit for each family at around 4-6 weeks of age based on their 1st, 2nd, 3rd choice puppies.

Breeder received $_____ from _____ on _____ in the form of _____ as a non-refundable deposit on a puppy. This deposit will hold the Adopters place on the chosen waiting list and/or the current puppy litter until they are ready for pick up at 8 weeks of age, which is on or around the date of _____. The full amount of the puppy is due at pickup or 8 weeks of age (whichever comes first) and can be made by CASH, cashier's check, personal check, electronic bank transfer or Venmo. Venmo ID is julieblina@gmail.com.

This deposit is nonrefundable in that the Breeder is not required to return it. The Breeder may choose to return the deposit if they feel that the circumstances merit a return. If there isn't a puppy that meets the Adopters specifications, they may transfer the deposit to any available waiting list or available puppy. Deposits are transferable; however they are non-refundable. They do not expire unless the Adopter has made no contact with the Breeder to discuss their upcoming situation within 90 days of making their deposit. Puppy prices are as follows:

Shopping List
Before You Bring Home Puppy, if possible!

1. Food and Water Bowls – Heavy and Tip Proof ($20)
2. Collar & ID Tag, Leashes (6 ft. and 15–30 ft. retractable), Grooming tools: brushes, shampoo (I use TropiClean), animal nail clippers, tooth brush. ($20 - $30)
3. Enzyme Cleaner (for all those puppy potty accidents) Simple Solution or other generic. ($30)
4. Toys ($10 or more!) Remember, they can turn the simplest things into play time. Empty boxes, ribbon, crumpled paper, bouncy playground ball (a personal FUN favorite), etc... Invest in some Bully Sticks, Cow Hooves, Squeaky or Crinkly toys and a few Rope toys that you can easily toss. Please avoid rawhide dog chews and dollar/grocery store chews. In addition, I do not recommend purchasing any training treats at this time, as they frequently cause diarrhea and have unhealthy preservatives in them. Pieces of their kibble work well for training! Aussies are usually very food motivated. Also, if you can, try and train your dog to eat carrots, as they love the crunch and it's great for their teeth!
5. Puppy Food – Invest in a mid-grade or higher quality food, as it will be worth it in the long term health of your puppy. You will obtain a small ziplock bag of Victor from me at pick-up. You can use it while you change brands gradually to your chosen puppy food. The puppies are on dry kibble when they go home, about ½ - ¾ cup, 2-3 times a day. (I use Victor Nutra Pro which only available at feed stores & on-line at www.Chewy.com and Amazon.) ($20-$50)
6. Dental Care/Fresh Breath - You are more than welcome to train your dog in getting their teeth brushed from a young age, BUT if that doesn't fit into your schedule try one or more of the following each day: Carrot Stick, Greenies, DentaStix, Dental Water Additive, Raw Frozen Chicken Wings or any sort of Raw Bone Marrow. ($5-$20)
6. Kennel, Crate or X-pen (Only if you are planning to kennel train your puppy for the purposes of potty training) – Approx. 30" X 21", or larger. ($65 - $90)
7. Dog Beds - One for them in the house and one that you can use in the crate, they usually make fleece ones with bumpers that fit the shape of the kennel or crate you are buying ($20 - $30) Don't spend too much, sometimes you may get a puppy that just chews up their beds! In which case use old towels/blankets or don't give them any bedding at all until they get older!
